

INDEX TO VOLUME 30

Page numbers indicate the month of issue as follows: September, 1-64; October, 65-128; November, 129-192; December, 193-256; January, 257-320; February, 321-384; March, 385-448; April, 449-512; May, 513-576.

- Aaberg, Karl J., on "Semimicro Procedure in High-School Chemistry Laboratories," 101
- Abrahamson, Stephen, on "The Needs Theory Applied in Secondary Schools," 323
- "Accentuate the Positive," editorial by Joseph Green, 279
- Adams, Sam, on "The Forward Look in Science Teaching," 391
- Adjustment school, permissive atmosphere prevails at Snyder High School, 44
- "Administrator as Teachers' Representative," by Edgar A. King, 559
- "Adolescence Is Normal," by J. R. Shannon, 395
- "Advertising the Town," by Miriam S. Coombs, 153
- "American School in a Foreign Culture," by Lewis D. Feesler, 111
- "... and Have a Nice Vacation," by Arthur S. Green, 369
- Andree, Robert G., on "Holland Has High-School Problems Too," 131
- Anker, Lieber, on "Murder in the Pressroom," 24
- "Another Slant on the Value of Homework," by Victor R. Cain, 161
- "Approach to the Problem of Sex Education," by Herbert A. Smith, 38
- "Are Your Students Worried?" by Joel B. Montague, Jr., 145
- Art, inexpensive reproductions aid teachers, 159
- "Assembly Programs via the Classroom," by Lois Ramstack, 202
- Astronomy, class project, 15
- Athletics: can be unduly emphasized, 350; "What Every Coach Knows," 499
- Attendance, responsibility developed through grade penalties for absence, 412
- "Attention, Mr. Businessman!" by Marie C. Senyard, 212
- "Audio-Visual News," 62, 127, 191, 254, 319, 447, 560
- Awards: a source for good publicity, 148; not always wise to try to select the "best" student, 298; successful system at John Marshall High School, 401
- Balderstone, Howard (coauthor), on "Seminar for Gifted Students," 519
- Bane, Laverne, on "Improving Discussion Skills," 222
- Bany, Mary, and Lois V. Johnson, on "Teaching Reading Skills in U.S. History," 371
- Barratt, Thomas Keating, on school awards, 148
- Bartholomew, Orris E., on new junior-high program in Racine, 397
- Baumann, Edith L., on "Julius Caesar: Is It True?" 208
- Bechtel, Raymond, on "The Way to a Modern Conference," 431
- Beck, Norman, and Adolph Unruh, on "State Controls Over Extracurricular Activities," 244
- "Before They Fall in Love," by George L. Keppers, 545
- Beger, Kenneth, on "Signs of the Times," 52
- Belding, Robert E., on "Today I Learned," 225
- Berkowitz, Pearl, and Esther Rothman, on "Remedial Reading for the Disturbed Child," 165
- "Better Results from Theme Correcting," by Florence C. Bowles, 178
- Bilingualism, see Foreign languages
- Bishop, Leslee J., "On Building Curriculum Bridges," 50
- Blackboard Jungle*, comments on, 31
- "Blackboard Protest," by Charles A. Tonsor, 31
- "Blind for a Day," by Frank W. Gilleland, 3
- "Book-a-Month Club," by Grace A. Mayr, 183
- Book Reviews, 53, 123, 186, 248, 313, 380, 439, 505, 561
- Books, parents find pupils' reading matter objectionable, 56
- Bowles, Florence C., on "Better Results from Theme Correcting," 178
- Boyd, James A., on developing the S.Q., 469
- Boyd, Sidney R., on "Extracurricular Activities Controlled," 26
- Brackman, Walter, on "Cartoons in the English Class," 268
- Brawn, Martha B., and Walter G. Patterson, on "Developmental Reading," 199
- Bridges, curriculum, 50
- Brimm, R. P., on a parable of the hapless teacher and the Samaritan, 344
- Broberg, Edith H., on supervision of study halls, 357
- Brooks, L. A., and L. R. Davis, on "Student Teachers and Classroom Control," 180
- Brown, Hamilton W., on workbooks, 8
- Burmeister, Norma, on "Standards of Instruction," 243
- Business education, extracurricular activity involves operation of school store as a stock corporation, 293
- "Business Teachers: Don't Provide Crutches for Your Students," by Helen Cole, 48
- Caesar, Julius*, new teaching method brings out Shakespeare's understanding of human nature, 208
- Cain, Victor R., on the "Value of Homework," 161
- Cairo American School, 111
- "Can Counseling Reduce Dropouts?" by Joe M. Young, 22
- "Can We Streamline the Teaching of Foreign Languages?" by Mary Weld Coates, 149
- Carey, Mell C., on "To Think or Not to Think," 301
- "Carnival Interest Enhances Effort," by David G. Karolius, 284
- Carr, David, on "Learning," 75
- "Cartoons in the English Class," by Walter Brackman, 268
- Chalk dust, uses for, 461
- Charity drives, administered by Student Charities Club, 354
- "Charity Drives at School," by Robert R. Halley, 416
- "Cheating: Three Ways to Handle the Problem," by Genevieve R. MacDougall, 332
- Chemistry, macro v. semimicro procedures, 101

- "Children Certainly Do Improve Their Writing Skills," by Helen Heed, 365
- Citizen interest in schools, aroused by National Citizens Commission for the Public Schools, 361
- "Civics: Dead or Alive—Which?" by C. Lee Eggert, 219
- Clark, Leonard H.: on "Teaching: an Overworked Profession?" 34; on "Teaching—a Profession?" 435
- Clearing House, history of, 27
- Closing of a school, 90
- Club activities, regulating student participation in, 118
- Coaches, see Athletics
- Coard, Robert L.: on "Spelling-Game Time," 9; on "The First Research Paper," 140
- Coates, Mary Weld, on "Streamlining the Teaching of Foreign Languages," 149
- Cole, Helen, offers suggestion to business teachers—don't provide crutches for your students, 48
- College, guidance clinics for parents of precollege students, 426
- "Commencement Speech I'd Like to Make," by George G. Gates, 525
- Commencements, need not be dull, 215
- Communication skills, interrelationship of, 103
- Communism, how to teach meanings of, 73
- Compositions, improvement in writing ability shown in 11-year survey, 365
- Conferences: the parent conference analyzed, 431; twelve rules for parent-teacher conferences, 234
- "Considerable Tail, the," by E. A. Hull, 499
- "Contest and the English Program, the," by Sallie Royster, 287
- "Cooking Class for Boys," by John L. DiFranco, 42
- Coombs, Miriam S., on "Advertising the Town," 153
- Core program, integration of language arts, geography, and current events, 121
- Cornish, Jane E., editor of "Findings," 297, 349, 484, 544
- "Correlating Music Appreciation with American Literature," by Mother Melanie Doyle, 305
- Cotner, Thomas E., on the U.S. international educational exchange program, 451
- Counseling: can it reduce dropouts in high school? 22; guidance clinics for parents of precollege students, 426; measuring the effectiveness of, 116; role of the classroom teacher in, 331, 338; secondary-school students need more challenge, 488; three interviews between guidance teacher and student, 530; under unified-period program, 397
- Cox, Katherine C., on "Permissive Atmosphere in an Adjustment School," 44
- Cox, Miriam S., on "Grammar: Why? How? When?" 98
- Creed, the Four-Way Test, 339
- "Criteria for a Foreign Language Program," by Walter V. Kauffers, 78
- Critical thinking, can be developed in study of literature, 462
- "Cult of Objectivity," by Theodore P. Gnagay, 46
- Culver, Ida, House, 135
- Cuony, Edward R., on "Parents Need Guidance Too," 426
- Current events, integrated with language arts and geography in core program in Kansas, 121
- Curriculum: gifted students deserve special instruction, 515, 517, 519; overhauled at Racine, Wis., 293; teacher participation in programs of curriculum improvement, 495; teachers look to principals for leadership in curriculum development, 295
- "Curriculum Bridges," by Leslie J. Bishop, 50
- Davis, L. R., and L. A. Brooks, on "Student Teachers and Classroom Control," 180
- "Death of a School," by M. E. Herriott, 90
- "Developmental Reading," by Walter G. Patterson and Martha B. Brawn, 199
- DiFranco, John L., on a "Cooking Class for Boys," 42
- Disadvantaged children, teaching of, 497
- "Discipline: a Confusing Dichotomy," by Paul W. Schmidtchen, 459
- Discipline: how student teachers can achieve classroom control, 180; schools must develop concept of a book of rules, 289; ten suggestions for, 335
- "Discipline That Makes Profit Out of Loss," by Fred J. Kluss, 147
- "Discussion Skills," by Laverne Bane, 222
- "Displaced Myths," by Louise Jean Walker, 71
- "Division of Responsibility between Teacher and Learner," by Harold H. Punke, 437
- "Do We Have a 'Best' Student?" by Celia E. Klotz, 298
- "Domestic Student Exchange," by Henry C. Jensen, 237
- Double sessions, arguments for, 275
- Douglass, Harl R., on "In-Service Growth of Junior-High-School Teachers," 11
- Doyle, Mother Melanie, on "Correlating Music Appreciation with American Literature," 305
- Drama, see TV drama
- Drotter, Stephen J., on "Good Attendance," 412
- Dunn, Ramona, on the technique of interviewing, 356
- Dunwiddie, Mary Jane, on the teacher shortage, 500
- "Early Teen Agers and Racial Prejudice in the South," by Thomas J. Hill, 28; reply to, 358
- Editorials: 211, 279, 342, 403, 475, 529
- Education students, gain experience through assisting with community groups, 176
- "Educational Journals: Should They Be More Practical?" by Richard W. Perkins, 241
- Educational Policies Commission, 403
- "Educational Progress, a Guide to," by Ablett H. Flury, 6
- Eggert, C. Lee, on "Civics: Dead or Alive—Which?" 219
- Elicker, Paul E., on scholarship opportunities for gifted students, editorial, 529
- Emotional needs of students: adolescence is normal, 395; classroom teacher cannot always solve, 408; how "worried" students can be helped, 338; secondary teachers have responsibility to try to cope with, 323; worries check list, 145
- English teaching: helped by TV drama, 527; improvement noted in writing skills over 11-year period, 365; literature correlated with music, 305; should develop critical thinking, 462; subject matter curriculum v. activity program, 540; use of cartoons, 268; use of essay contents, 287
- Essay contests, teaching device in English, 287
- "European High School: Is It Really Better?" by Walter Hahn, 464
- "Events and Opinion," 184, 224, 310, 377, 429, 503
- Exchange programs for students, 237
- Exchange teaching, 451
- "Experience, Please!" by Earl W. Thomas, 171
- "Experiment in Teen-Age TV," by Patrick D. Hazard, 113
- "Extracurricular Activities Controlled," by Sidney R. Boyd, 26
- Extracurricular funds, state controls over, 244

- Faculty meetings, satirized, 271
 "Faculty Meetings—Dead or Alive?" by Margaret E. Mann, 157
 Farm work camps, 521
 Farwell, Gail F., and Herman J. Peters, on "The Guidance Function of the Classroom Teacher," 231
 Feesler, Lewis D., on "An American School in a Foreign Culture," 111
 "Findings," 33, 173, 249, 297, 349, 484, 544
 Fine, Benjamin, on financing the nation's schools, editorial, 342
 "First Research Paper," by Robert L. Coard, 140
 Fischer, Eunice, on "Students Have a Tough Time Too," 107
 Five-period day, inaugurated at Fort Atkinson Senior High School, 94
 "Flannel Boards for Better Teaching," by E. Milton Grassell, 420
 Flury, Ablett H., on "A Guide to Educational Progress," 6
 Foley, Grayce An, on "Teaching as Teachers See It," 302
 Foreign languages: criteria for a good foreign-language program in high schools, 78; regrettable decline in study of, 534; streamlining the teaching of, 149
 Foreign schools: Cairo American School, 111; is the European high school really better? 464; secondary education in India, 346; secondary-school problems in Holland, 131
 "Forward Look in Science Teaching," by Sam Adams, 391
 "Four-Way Test," by Herbert J. Taylor, 339
 Frazier, Alexander, on "Special Classes for the Gifted?" 515
 "Fresh Air," by John H. Treanor, 20
 Friel, Leon C., on "School Awards," 401
 "Fruit Showers," by John H. Treanor, 21
 Furness, Edna Lue, on "Language Teaching: a Sacred Trust," 103
 Gansberg, Martin, on "Let's Put the P.T.A. to Work!" 375
 Gates, George G., on "The Commencement Speech I'd Like to Make," 525
 Gaumnitz, Walter H., on year-round schools and double sessions, 275
 Gibbins, Neil L., on "Stock for Students," 52
 Gifted students: arguments for and against acceleration for, 387; benefit from mass reproductions of cultural objects, 159; scholarship opportunities for, 529; symposium on, 515-520
 Gilleland, Frank W., on being "Blind for a Day," 3
 Ginsberg, Louis: poems—"Little Boys," 35; "School," 285; "Now a Satellite," 394
 Gnasey, Theodore P., on "The Cult of Objectivity," 46
 "Gold Mine, A," by Hamilton W. Brown, 8
 "Good Attendance," by Stephen J. Drotter, 412
 Good, Ruth, on the National Citizens Commission for the Public School, 61
 Gordon, Ted: editor of "Tricks of the Trade," 41, 109, 156, 230, 286, 364, 425, 496; on "My Ten Favorite Suggestions for Effective Disciplines," 335
 "Grammar: Why? How? When?" by Miriam S. Cox, 98
 Grassell, E. Milton, on "Flannel Boards for Better Teaching," 420
 Gray, Annabel, on "Jame's and Education," 307
 Green, Arthur S., on unrealistic advice to teachers regarding summer vacations, 369
 Green, Joseph, on the need for schools to "accentuate the positive," editorial, 279
 Griffin, Norma, and E. C. Hall, on "Rehabilitating the Handicapped," 493
 Guidance, see Counseling
 "Guidance Function of the Classroom Teacher," by Gail F. Farwell and Herman J. Peters, 231
 "Guide to Educational Progress," by Ablett H. Flury, 6
 Hahn, Walter, on European v. American high schools, 464
 Hall, E. C., and Norma Griffin, on "Rehabilitating the Handicapped," 493
 Hall, George V., and Thomas E. Walt, on "Honors Courses Provide Challenge," 517
 Halley, Robert R., on "Charity Drives at School," 416
 Handicapped persons, vocational rehabilitation of, 493
 Harshbarger, L. H., on "The Rover Boys in Study Hall," 350
 Hauer, Herbert, editor of "Events and Opinion," 310, 429
 "Have You Aroused Citizen Interest in Your School?" by Ruth Good, 561
 Hazard, Patrick D.: on "An Experiment in Teen-Age TV," 113; on being a "Patron of the Arts," 159; editor of "TV and the Newer Media," 383, 444, 510, 564
 "Hazel Park Junior High," by R. O. Isaacksen, 537
 Hearn, Arthur C. (coauthor), on "Seminar for Gifted Students," 519
 Heed, Helen, on "Children Certainly Do Improve Their Writing Skills," 365
 "Help for the Substitute Teacher," by Edna P. Richmond, 414
 Hemphill, Mildred C., on "The Spirit Moved Us," 288
 Hence, Kathleen, quoted in three guidance interviews, 530
 Herriott, M. E., on the "Death of a School," 90
 Hill, Thomas J.: on "Early Teen Agers and Racial Prejudice in the South," 28; letter to, 358
 History, see United States history
 "Holland Has High-School Problems Too," by Robert G. Andree, 131
 Holzman, Margaret H., on "Let's Catch Some Teachers," 138
 Homework, value of, 161
 "Honors Courses Provide Challenge," by George V. Hall and Thomas E. Walt, 517
 Hoppock, Robert, on how to help worried students, 338
 "How Best Are the Gifted Lifted?" by Arno Jewett, 387
 "How Can We Develop the S.Q.?" by James A. Boyd, 469
 "How Did You Play the Game?" by Charles A. Tonson, 289
 "How Johnny Learns to Read in High School," by Angell Mathewson, 454
 "How Many Is a Teacher?" by Thomas L. Lee, 411
 "How Much Self-Direction for Our Students?" by Albert M. Lerch, 488
 "How to Teach the Meanings of Communism," by Robert E. Price, 73
 Hulihan, Edward J., on "Time Lag between Report Cards," 158
 Hull, E. A.: on "Something Borrowed," 5; on "The Considerable Tail," or "What Every Coach Knows," 499

- Humanities, important function of education, 46
 Hunt-Kogan movement scale, used to measure effectiveness of school counselors' work, 116
- "I Left English for Journalism," by Reef Waldrep, 10
 "I Teach Just Speech," by Carol E. Prentiss, 103
 "In-Service Growth of Junior-High-School Teachers," by Hurl R. Douglass, 11
 India, secondary education in, 546
 Industrial arts: satisfactions in, 210; tests to determine aptitude for, 479
 Interviewing, journalism students learn technique of, 266
 "Involvement in Curriculum Improvement," by Margaret M. Stoskey, 495
 Iron, William (consultant), on "Seminar for Gifted Students," 549
 Irwin, Forrest: book review editor, 53, 128, 186, 248, 315, 380, 400, 505, 561
 "Is the 'Master' Teacher the Answer?" by Lennard E. Loos, 265
 Imlensen, R. O., on "Hazel Park Junior High," 557
 "It Is Better to Give . . ." by William F. Steiner, 354
- "Jame's and Education," by Annabel Gray, 307
 Johnson, Thomas, educational theories discussed, 477
 Jellicock, James J., on "Literature and the Development of Critical Thinking," 462
 Jenska, Charles, on "Individual Differences in the Spelling," 283
 Jensen, Grant W., on "Tapping Resources for Curriculum Development," 295
 Jensen, Henry C., on "Domestic Student Exchange," 237
 Jewett, Arno, on "How Best Are the Gifted Lifted?" 287
 Johnson, Lois V., and Mary Bany, on "Teaching Reading Skills in U.S. History," 371
 Journalism, student, 10, 24, 153, 205, 356
 "Julius Caesar: Is It True?" by Edith L. Baumann, 208
 Junior high schools: in-service growth of teachers, 11; inadequate training of teachers for, 329; new Hazel Park Junior High in St. Paul has modern features, 557; orientation buddy day helps bridge gap from sixth to seventh grades, 169; Racine, Wis., adopts unified period, 397
- Kahn, Gil, reports guidance interviews, 530
 Karolius, David G., on "Carnival Interest Enhances Effort," 284
 Kaulfers, Walter V., on "Criteria for a Foreign Language Program," 78
 Keppers, George L., on need for sex education "Before They Fall in Love," 545
 King, Edgar A., on "The Role of the Administrator as Teachers' Representative," 559
 Klotz, Celia E., on "Do We Have a 'Best' Student?" 298
 Kluss, Fred J., on "Discipline That Makes Profit Out of Loss," 147
- Lake, Ernest G., on the 1960 secondary school, editorial, 475
 Language instruction: see English teaching, Foreign languages, Grammar
 "Language Teaching: a Sacred Trust," by Edna Lue Furness, 103
- "Latent Abilities," by Jerome E. Leavitt, 242
 Lathrop, Irvin, on "Selective Admission to Industrial Arts Classes," 479
 "Laurie and the Litmus Paper," by Paul Westmeyer, 419
 Leadership training for youth, 195
 "Learning," by David Carr, 75
 Learning process, teacher v. student responsibility in, 457
 Leavitt, Jerome E., on "Latent Abilities," 242
 Lee, Thomas L., on "How Many Is a Teacher?" 411
 Leopold, L. E., on "Parent Fears about Books Pupils Read in Class and Library," 36
 Lent, Ralph E., on uses for chalk dust, 461
 Lerch, Albert M., on "How Much Self-Direction for Our Students?" 488
 "Let's Catch Some Teachers," by Margaret H. Holzman, 156
 "Let's Put the P.T.A. to Work!" by Martin Gansberg, 375
 Lewis, Frederick H., on "Teaching in a Depressed Area," 497
 Lewis, Nettie B., on "Listen, Please!" 535
 "Listen, Please!" by Nettie B. Lewis, 535
 Listening ability, 535
 Literature: correlated with music, 305; inexpensive books aid teachers, 159
 "Literature and the Development of Critical Thinking," by James J. Jellicock, 462
 Litmus paper, see Science
 Livingston, Nancy W., on "Regulating Participation in Club Activities," 118
 Logan, J. E., on "Teachers Are Off Their Rockers in Seattle," 135
 Long, Forrest, former editor of the Clearing House, 2, 27
 Loos, Leonard E., evaluates theory of the "master" teacher, 236
 Lyles, Raleigh, on "Teachers and Professionalism," 548
- McCormick, Lyla E., on "Mark Twain Unit," 122
 Macdonald, Loretta McBreen, on "Measuring the Effectiveness of Counseling," 116
 MacDougall, Genevieve R., on cheating, 332
 McKlveen, Gilbert D., on "Why Not Practice What You Preach?" 176
 Maloney, Henry B., on "TV Drama: the English Teacher's Bonanza," 537
 Mann, Margaret E., on "Faculty Meetings—Dead or Alive?" 157
 "Mark Twain Unit" by Lyla E. McCormick, 122
 Marking, athletics v. scholarship, 350
 "Master" teachers, 236
 Mathematics: high-school enrollment figures, 265; project involving imaginary money devised to maintain interest in, 280
 Mathewson, Angell, on "How Johnny Learns to Read in High School," 454
 "Matthew Tubb's Parting Counsel," by J. R. Shannon, 67
 Mayr, Grace A., on "The Book-a-Month Club," 183
 "Measuring the Effectiveness of Counseling," by Loretta McBreen Macdonald, 116
 "Meet the Press," by Charles A. Tonsor, 556
 "Mental Ability and Reading," by Virgil E. Tompkins, 551
 Mental illness, how to handle children who are unable to conform, 174
 Michael, Sister M., on "Twelve Rules for Parent-Teacher Conferences," 234
 "Modern Parable," by R. P. Brimm, 344

- "Money Is Only Imaginary," by Louis E. Scaramuzzi, 280
- Montague, Joel B., Jr., on "Are Your Students Worried?" 145
- Morrow, Ann Ess, on learning to read, 484
- "Mrs. Montgomery Is Swell . . ." by Onas C. Scandrette, 341
- "Murder in the Prestream," by Lieber Anker, 24
- Music: correlated with literature, 305; inexpensive records aid teachers, 159
- "Must Commencements Be Dull?" by F. J. Roberts, 215
- "My Ten Favorite Suggestions for Effective Discipline," by Ted Gordon, 355
- Mythology, should be restored to elementary and secondary school curriculums, 71
- "Nabby-Pamby Education," 265
- Names of classmates, easily learned by novel technique, 308
- "Nancy and Miss Hence," 539
- National Citizens Commission for the Public Schools, has alerted citizens to school problems, 361
- "Needs Theory Applied in Secondary Schools," by Stephen Abrahamson, 323
- Negroes, see Racial segregation
- Netts, Mary, on "The World in a Classroom," 16
- "New American Revolution," by Gerald M. Van Pool, 195
- Newspapers, see Press, the
- Newspapers, school: need encouragement, 24; publishing school paper and annual without deficit, 205; Woodbury, Conn., students produce tourist booklet, 153
- "No Matter How You Slice It, There's Always English," by Peggy Fellis Winger, 549
- "Notices," by John H. Treanor, 20
- Novak, Benjamin J., on "Youth Work Camps," 521
- Objectivity v. subjectivity in the curriculum, 46
- "Off to a Good Start," by Mary Ohm, 308
- Ohm, Mary, on learning names of classmates, 308
- "Organization Is Primarily People," editorial by Ellsworth Tompkins, 211
- "Orientation Buddy Day," by Burt Swales, 169
- "Our Guilty Teachers," by Glen R. Rasmussen, 408
- "Out of the Red," by Marion L. Tallman, 205
- "Overview of Secondary Education in India," by Charles E. Weber, 346
- Parable, the hapless teacher and the Samaritan, 544
- "Parent Fears About Books Pupils Read in Class and Library," by L. E. Leopold, 36
- Parent-principal workshop, successful experiment in Bronx schools, 88
- Parent-Teacher Association, an asset to schools, 375
- Parent-teacher conferences: analyzed, 431; twelve rules for, 334
- "Parents Need Guidance Too," by Edward R. Cuony, 426
- "Pathways to Understanding," by Alice Phillips, 88
- "Patron of the Arts," by Patrick D. Hazard, 159
- Patterson, Walter G., and Martha B. Brawn, on "Developmental Reading," 199
- Peavey, Blanche E., on clarifying poetic language, 218
- Perkins, Richard W.: on "Educational Journals: Should They Be More Practical?" 241; on "Who Trains Junior-High Teachers?" 329
- "Permissive Atmosphere in an Adjustment School," by Katherine C. Cox, 44
- Peters, Herman J., and Gail F. Farwell, on "The Guidance Function of the Classroom Teacher," 231
- Phillips, Alice, on "Pathways to Understanding," 88
- Pleasants, Samuel A., on "Some Proposals of Jefferson for an Educational System," 477
- "Please Come to Order," by William Plutte, 271
- Plutte, William, satire on faculty meetings, 271
- Poetry, experience in interpreting figurative language essential for understanding of, 218
- Policy making, teachers should participate in, 501
- Poor, Gerald L., on techniques of teaching, 19
- Pope, Milton S., on roller skating in schools, 479
- Post office, as a teaching unit, 471
- Potter, Robert E., on the post office as a teaching unit, 471
- "P.R.—a Primary Responsibility," by Frederic T. Shipp, 327
- Prasch, John, on "Racine Overhauls Curriculum," 259
- Premisa, Carol E., on "I Teach Just Speech," 103
- Press, the: schools should maintain friendly relations with, 556
- Price, Robert E., on "How to Teach the Meanings of Communism," 73
- Principal-parent workshop, successful experiment in Bronx schools, 88
- Principals, must take lead in modern curriculum development, 205
- Printing, tests to determine aptitude for, 479
- Professional education, standards should be higher than in secondary education, 18
- Professionalism: see Teachers and Professionalism; Teaching—a Profession? etc.
- Psychology: how self-confidence can be undermined or developed in school, 85; remedial reading for disturbed children, 165; see also Schizophrenia, Emotional needs of students
- Public Education and the Future of America, discussion of book, 6
- Public relations, role of the classroom teacher, 327
- Punke, Harold H., on "Division of Responsibility Between Teacher and Learner," 457
- Quaker meeting, experiment in social living class, 288
- Racial segregation: ninth-grade southern debate on, 28; views of Negro northern students on, 358
- "Racine Overhauls Curriculum," by John Prasch, 259
- Racine, Wis., adopts unified period in junior high schools, 397
- Ramstack, Lois, on "Assembly Programs via the Classroom," 202
- Rasmussen, Glen R., on "Our Guilty Teachers," 408
- Reading: book-a-month club, 183; free reading v. group reading, 454; how science teachers can help students read better, 85; in defense of modern teaching methods, 434; interrelated with writing, speaking, and listening, 103; new techniques in teaching remedial reading to disturbed children, 165; students evaluate course in developmental reading, 199; Suffern High tests proficiency in, 551; teaching reading skills in U.S. history, 371
- "Reading Improvement," by Fred Stahuber, 337
- Reading matter, parents complain about books pupils read, 36

- "Regulating Participation in Club Activities," by Nancy W. Livingston, 118
- "Rehabilitating the Handicapped," by E. C. Hall and Norma Griffin, 493
- Reinhardt, Emma, on "Self-Confidence: Undermined or Developed in School," 85
- "Remedial Reading for the Disturbed Child," by Pearl Berkowitz and Esther Rothman, 165
- Report cards, time period between cards presents problem, 158
- Research papers, high-school students need help in choosing topics, 140
- Retarded students: cooking class for boys, 42; new techniques for teaching remedial reading, 165; permissive atmosphere in an adjustment school, 44
- Retired teachers, Seattle teachers erect Ida Culver House, 155
- Richmond, Edna P., on "Help for the Substitute Teacher," 414
- Robbins, Blanche Berson: poem—"A Challenge to Teachers," 89
- Roberts, F. J., on "Must Commencements Be Dull?" 215
- "Role of the Administrator as Teachers' Representative," by Edgar A. King, 559
- Roller skating, as a school activity, 470
- Rothman, Esther, and Pearl Berkowitz, on "Remedial Reading for the Disturbed Child," 165
- "Rover Boys in Study Hall," by L. H. Harshbarger, 350
- Royster, Salibelle, on "The Contest and the English Program," 287
- Rules of conduct, schools should develop concept of, 289
- Salaries: drawbacks to uniform salary scales, 144; open bargaining v. salary schedules, 491
- Sammartino, Peter, on desirability of travel for teachers, 273
- Scandrette, Onas C., on "Mrs. Montgomery Is Swell . . .," 341
- Scaramuzzi, Louis E., on "Money Is Only Imaginary," 280
- Schizophrenia, how to handle students afflicted with, 174
- Schlager, William, on "A School Store Operated as a Stock Corporation," 293
- Schmidtchen, Paul W., on "Discipline: a Confusing Dichotomy," 459
- Scholarships for gifted students, 529
- "School Awards," by Leon C. Friel, 401
- School buildings: financing of, 342; the 1960 secondary school, 475; underbuilt or underused? 275
- School financing, 342
- "School Store Operated as a Stock Corporation," by William Schlager, 293
- "Schools Must Emphasize Opportunity," by Joseph E. Walker, 144
- Schubert, Delwyn G., on what science teachers can do to help students read more efficiently, 83
- Science: astronomy project, 15; experiment with litmus paper teaches scientific method, 419; high-school enrollment figures, 265; macrochemistry v. semimicrochemistry, 101; now permeates teaching in all subjects, 391
- "Science Teachers: What You Can Do to Help Students Read More Efficiently," by Delwyn G. Schubert, 83
- "Search Out Everyday Resources," by Ramona Dunn, 356
- Secondary school—1960 model, 475
- Segregation, racial: ninth-grade southern debate on, 28; views of Negro northern students on, 358
- "Selective Admission to Industrial Arts Classes," by Irvin Lathrop, 479
- "Self-Confidence: Can Be Undermined or Developed in School," by Emma Reinhardt, 85
- "Semimicro Procedure in High-School Chemistry Laboratories," by Karl J. Aaberg, 101
- "Seminar for Gifted Students," by William Iron, Howard Balderstone, and Arthur C. Hearn, 519
- Senyard, Marie C., on devices used to improve spelling, 212
- Sex education: 38, 545
- Shakespeare, William, new method of teaching Julius Caesar, 208
- Shannon, J. R.: on "Matthew Tubb's Parting Counsel," 67; on "Adolescence Is Normal," 395
- Shipp, Frederic T., on "P.R.—a Primary Responsibility," 327
- Shopwork, tests to determine aptitude for, 479
- Shreve, Robert H., on abolishing study halls, 94
- "Sitting Down," by John H. Treanor, 331
- Smith, Herbert A., on "An Approach to the Problem of Sex Education," 38
- Snyder High School, San Diego adjustment school, 44
- Social quotient, development of, 469
- Solovay, Jacob C.: poem—"Classroom Heaven," 97
- "Some Proposals of Jefferson for an Educational System," by Samuel A. Pleasants, 477
- "Something Borrowed," by Adaline Hall, 5
- "Special Classes for the Gifted?" by Alexander Frazier, 515
- Speech, required course at Stearns High School, 163
- Spelldown, innovation in, 283
- Spelling, devices used to improve, 212
- "Spelling Game Time," by Robert L. Coard, 9
- "Spirit Moved Us, the," by Mildred C. Hemphill, 288
- "Spread Your Wings, Teacher!" by Peter Sammartino, 273
- S.Q., see Social quotient
- Stahl, Donald E.: on "Satisfactions in Industrial Arts," 210; on "Supervision and the Improvement of Instruction," 418
- Stahuber, Fred, on "Reading Improvement," 337
- Stamp, Joan, on Marietta, Minn., student council, 21
- "Standards of Instruction," by Norma Burmeister, 243
- "State Controls Over Extracurricular Activities," by Adolph Unruh and Norman Beck, 244
- Steeves, Frank L., on need for high standards in professional schools, 18
- Steiner, William F., on charity drives in schools, 354
- Stern, Ira Leroy, on "A Science Activity in Astronomy," 15
- "Stock for Students," by Neil L. Gibbins, 52
- Stuckey, Margaret M., on "Involvement in Curriculum Improvement," 405
- Student council in Marietta, Minn., 21
- Student exchange programs, value of, 237
- "Student-Teacher Day at Compton," by Sam S. Zackheim, 76
- "Student Teachers and Classroom Control," by L. R. Davis and L. A. Brooks, 180
- "Students Have a Tough Time, Too," by Eunice Fischer, 107
- "Students Need to Be Bilingual," by Louise Jean Walker, 554
- "Study Habits," by Sister Mary Xavier, 229
- Study halls: abolished at Fort Atkinson High School,

- 94; supervision of, 357; what a few words did to improve study habits, 289
- Substitute teachers, face unique problems, 414
- "Supervision and the Improvement of Instruction," by Donald E. Stahl, 418
- Swales, Burt, on "Orientation Buddy Day," 169
- Sweet, F. L., on "Teachers Should Be Allowed to Participate in Policy Making," 501
- Tail of a dog, 499
- Tallman, Marion L., on publication of school paper and annual without deficit, 205
- "Tapping Resources for Curriculum Development," by Grant W. Jensen, 295
- Tarbet, Donald G., on "The Televiewing Habits of Pupils," 485
- Taylor, Herbert J., on "The Four-Way Test," 339
- Teacher recruitment, 138, 500
- Teachers: cannot always hope to solve emotional problems of students, 408; have too many non-academic responsibilities, 411; relationship to guidance specialists, 231
- "Teachers and Professionalism," by Raleigh Lyles, 548
- "Teachers Are Off Their Rockers in Seattle," by J. E. Logan, 135
- "Teachers' Salaries and the Free-Enterprise System," by Frank E. Wolf, 491
- "Teachers Should Be Allowed to Participate in Policy Making," by F. L. Sweet, 501
- Teaching, three techniques, 19
- "Teaching—a Profession?" by Leonard H. Clark, 435
- "Teaching: an Overworked Profession?" by Leonard H. Clark, 34
- "Teaching as Teachers See It," by Grayce An Foley, 502
- "Teaching in a Depressed Area," by Frederick H. Lewis, 497
- "Teaching Reading Skills in U.S. History," by Lois V. Johnson and Mary Bany, 371
- Teen-agers: morale helped by use of Four-Way Test, 339; produce TV program in Michigan, 113; pupils in Florida school debate racial segregation, 28
- "Televiewing Habits of Pupils," by Donald G. Tarbet, 485
- Television: teen-agers in Michigan produce TV program, 113; televiewing habits of pupils, 485
- "Television and the Newer Media," new Clearing House department, 383, 444, 510, 564
- Theme correcting, use of graphs, 178
- Thinking v. memorizing: 301; see also Critical thinking
- "This Is the News," by Horace E. West, 121
- Thomas, Earl W., on "Experience, Please!" 171
- "To Think or Not to Think," by Mell C. Carey, 301
- "Today I Learned," by Robert E. Belding, 225
- Tompkins, Ellsworth: new editor of Clearing House, 2; on "Organization Is Primarily People," editorial, 211
- Tompkins, Virgil E., on "Mental Ability and Reading," 551
- Tonsor, Charles A.: on the Blackboard Jungle, 31; on "Wanderers and Tellers of Tall Tales," 174; on "How Did You Play the Game?" 289; on need for school principals to "Meet the Press," 556
- Travel, beneficial for teachers, 273
- Treanor, John H.: on "Notices—Fresh Air—Fruit Showers," 20; on "Your Voice" and "On Sitting Down," 330, 331
- Trente Ans Après, history of Clearing House, 27
- "Tricks of the Trade," 41, 109, 156, 250, 286, 364, 425, 496
- Tubb, Matthew, parting counsel, 67
- TV, see Television
- "TV and the Newer Media," see "Television and the Newer Media"
- "TV Drama: the English Teacher's Bonanza," by Henry B. Maloney, 527
- "Twelve Rules for Parent-Teacher Conferences," by Sister M. Michael, 234
- "Underbuilt or Underused?" by Walter H. Gaumnitz, 275
- Unified period, in Racine, Wis., junior high schools, 397
- United States history, teaching reading skills in, 371
- Unruh, Adolph, and Norman Beck, on "State Controls Over Extracurricular Activities," 244
- Vacations, teachers receive unrealistic advice concerning, 369
- Van Pool, Gerald M., on "The New American Revolution," 105
- Vivian, V. Eugene, new editor of "Audio-Visual News," 254, 319, 447, 560
- Vocational rehabilitation of the physically handicapped, 493
- Voice, how to make it an asset, 330
- Waldrep, Reef, on "I Left English for Journalism," 10
- Walker, Joseph E., on "Schools Must Emphasize Opportunity," 144
- Walker, Louise Jean: on "The Displaced Myth," 71; on "Students Need to Be Bilingual," 534
- Walt, Thomas E., and George V. Hall, on "Honors Courses Provide Challenge," 517
- "Wanderers and Tellers of Tall Tales," by Charles A. Tonsor, 174
- "Way to a Modern Conference," by Raymond Bechtel, 451
- "We Abolished Study Halls," by Robert H. Shreve, 94
- "We Didn't Play Post Office," by Robert E. Potter, 471
- "We Don't Have to Practice What We Teach," by Frank L. Steeves, 18
- Weber, Charles E., on "An Overview of Secondary Education in India," 346
- West, Horace E., on an integrated core experience in language arts, geography, and current events, 121
- Westmeyer, Paul, on "Laurie and the Litmus Paper," 419
- "What Mary and Johnny Are Doing at Washington Junior High School," by Orris E. Bartholomew, 397
- "Where You Find It," by Blanche E. Peavey, 218
- "Why Not Practice What You Preach?" by Gilbert D. McKlveen, 176
- Wilson, Howard E., on the Educational Policies Commission, editorial, 403
- Wingler, Peggy Fellis, on English teaching, 540
- Wolf, Frank E., on "Teachers' Salaries and the Free-Enterprise System," 491
- Work camps, 521
- Workbooks, 8
- "World in a Classroom," by Mary Nettis, 16
- Worries: questionnaire reveals worries of high-school freshmen, 145; students with problems seek help, 358

- "Would You Like to Teach Overseas?" by Thomas E. Cotner, 451
Wright, John Cecil, editor of "Audio-Visual News," 62, 127, 191
Writing skills, improvement shown in 11-year survey, 365
Xavier, Sister Mary, on "Study Habits," 229
Year-round schools, arguments for, 275
Young, Joe M., on whether counseling can reduce dropouts in high school, 22
"Your Voice," by John H. Treanor, 330
"Youth Work Camps," by Benjamin J. Novak, 521
Zackheim, Sam S., on "Student-Teacher Day at Compton," 76